

Third Annual “The State of Seniors in the Lowcountry”

This Forum will address key issues affecting all seniors and their families living in the Lowcountry. You will have direct contact with decision-makers to ask questions important to you and receive updates on aging in SC.

This program is FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
February 14, 2012. 9AM to 11AM

Charleston Southern University, Lightsey Chapel.
9200 University Boulevard, Charleston, SC 29406
<http://www.csuniv.edu/map.asp>

Invited speakers will represent the following agencies and organizations:

Tony Kester, Director. Denise Rivers, Deputy Director

The Lieutenant Governor’s Office on Aging, Columbia, SC.

<http://aging.sc.gov/Pages/default.aspx>

Teresa Arnold, Associate State Director - Advocacy

AARP, Columbia, SC. <http://www.aarp.org/states/sc/>

Stephanie Blunt, Executive Director

Trident Aging and Disability and Resource Center, Charleston, SC. <http://tridentaaa.net>

This Forum is being organized by the Lowcountry Senior Network and the SC Aging in Place Coalition.

